If you're going to add a live pump to a tractor that didn't previously have one, check the spacing of the two top bolts on the distributor drive (it should be about 3" for older Ms, and about 3-1/2" for newer ones and Super Ms). IH pumps will likely only fit the wider spacing, but you may be able to find a pump made by an after-market supplier that will fit the narrower spacing. Farmall was a model name and later a brand name for tractors manufactured by the American company International Harvester (IH). The Farmall name was usually presented as McCormick-Deering Farmall and later McCormick Farmall in the evolving brand architecture of IH.. Farmalls were general-purpose tractors. Their origins were as row-crop tractors, a category that they helped establish and in ... This forum is a general discussion of International Farmall tractors and anything related to their use.
